OFINIONS to THE PERS.

"Every politician, student of history, or other person pretending to a knowledge of our public affairs, should possess the works of Jefferson."—New Yor k Herald.

"This work is an individual donation to the people of America, and to the whole world also, as it contains the germs of republicanism that devoloped themselves so glo riously in this land, and are sinting into the hearts of the oppressed in every nation under the besvens. It is the duty of every American citizen to familiarise himself with the teachings of this inspired apostle of freedom All of us profess to belong to the Jeffersonian school, yet how few are acquainted with his sersons and windom! We have now an opportunity of acquiring them."—Transcript. RIKER, ThORNE & CO., Publishers, 129 Falton street, New York.
